

HIPAA NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices (“Notice”) covers an Affiliated Covered Entity (“ACE”). When this Notice refers to the Transamerica ACE or “we”, “our” or “us”, it is referring to the health care components of the following affiliated entities; Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company, Transamerica Life Insurance Company, and Transamerica Premier Life Insurance. Each of the companies listed above is a hybrid covered entity under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the regulations promulgated thereunder (collectively, “HIPAA”). The combined companies listed are designated as a single covered entity for purposes of compliance with HIPAA and certain covered health care components of such companies. The single covered entity shall be known as the Transamerica Affiliated Covered Entity or the “Transamerica ACE.” This designation may be amended from time-to-time to add new covered entities that are under common control and ownership to the Transamerica ACE.

The Transamerica ACE is required under HIPAA to protect the privacy of your protected health information (“PHI”), provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI and abide by the terms of the Notice currently in effect for the Transamerica ACE. This Notice describes how the Transamerica ACE may use and disclose your PHI and your rights to access and amend your PHI.

This notice is effective September 23, 2013 and provided to you in connection with your health plan from the Transamerica ACE. In some cases, this may include product riders purchased with a product that is not considered a health plan subject to HIPAA. Health plans include, but are not limited to: Dental, Long Term Care, Medicare Supplement, Prescription Drug Coverage, Supplemental Medical Expense, Medical Expense, and TRICARE.

Our Commitment to Your Privacy

We are committed to maintaining the privacy of your PHI. This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose your PHI for payment, health care operations, and other circumstances as either required or permitted by law. Permitted uses and disclosures may include use and disclosure between the affiliates within the Transamerica ACE. Except as outlined below, we will not use or disclose your PHI without your written authorization, which you may revoke as described in the “Your Privacy Rights” section below. For example, use or disclosure of your PHI for marketing, or any disclosure that would constitute a sale of your PHI, would require your authorization.

We are required by law to: safeguard your PHI; give you this Notice of our duties and privacy practices; notify you in the event of a breach of your unsecured PHI; and abide by the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices currently in effect. The laws of your state may provide additional privacy rights.

We reserve the right to change any of our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice, and to make the new notice effective for all PHI maintained by us. In the event of a material change, a revised notice will be sent to all of our policyholders.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PHI

- 1. Treatment. We do not make treatment decisions, but we may disclose your information to those who do. For example, we may disclose information regarding your benefits to doctors, hospitals, long term care facilities, and other health care providers involved in your care.
- 2. Payment. We may use and disclose your PHI as necessary for benefit verification and claims processing purposes. For instance, we may use information regarding health care services you receive from service providers such as physicians, hospitals, pharmacies, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and home health care agencies to process and pay claims, to determine whether services are medically necessary or to otherwise pre-authorize or certify services as covered under your health plan. We may also forward such information to another health plan, which may also have an obligation to process and pay claims on your behalf. Examples of our payment related purposes also include our collection of premiums, coordinating reinsurance, and care coordination activities.
- 3. Health Care Operations. We will use and disclose your PHI as necessary, and as permitted by law to operate our business including performing quality improvement and assurance, conducting cost-management and business planning, enrollment, underwriting, reinsurance, compliance, auditing, rating, customer service, fraud prevention and reporting, research purposes, specialized government functions, payment of agent commissions, and other functions related to your health plan. With the exception of long-term care insurance underwriting, we are prohibited from using or disclosing your protected health information that is genetic information for underwriting purposes. If our long-term care insurance underwriting uses genetic information it will only be used in a manner allowed by law.
- 4. Family and Friends Involved in Your Care. We may disclose your PHI to certain family, friends, and others who are involved in your care or in the payment for your care in order to not hinder that person’s involvement. If you are unavailable, incapacitated, or facing an emergency medical situation, or if we have determined, based on our professional judgment and review of the circumstances, that you would not object and that a limited disclosure may be in your best interest, we may share limited PHI without your approval. If you have designated a person to help prevent the unintentional lapse of your coverage, we will inform that person prior to terminating the policy for nonpayment of premium. We may also disclose limited PHI to a public or private entity that is authorized to assist in disaster relief efforts in order for that entity to locate a family member or other persons that may be involved in some aspect of caring for you. You have the right to stop or limit these disclosures by contacting us at the address shown at the end of this notice.

5. Business Associates. Certain services are performed through contracts with outside persons or organizations, such as auditing, accreditation, actuarial services, legal services, claims investigation and adjudication, underwriting support services, care coordination services, etc. We may disclose your PHI to one or more of these outside persons or organizations that assist us with our health care operations. We obligate business associates to appropriately safeguard the privacy of your PHI.
6. Collection of Information. To properly underwrite, rate, and administer your health plan, we may collect health and non-health personal information such as your age, occupation, physical condition, and health history, including drug and alcohol usage. You are our most important source of information; however, with your authorization, we may also collect or verify information by contacting information sources such as: insurance support organizations (like Medical Information Bureau, Inc.); insurance companies to which you have applied for coverage; and medical professionals and facilities which have provided services to you.
7. Agents. Your agent is our business associate. For customer service purposes, your agent may be notified of certain coverage-related matters and information necessary to assist in servicing your coverage. For example, your agent may be notified if we: decline your application, offer you coverage at a higher than standard rate, or offer to accept the application with modifications to the benefits you requested. We may also notify your agent when there is a change in premium paying status, when we receive notice of a claim, or notice of the cancellation or replacement of your policy. Your agent may be notified on their commission statement that your policy remains in force for as long as you continue to pay your premium.
8. Plan Sponsors. We may also use or disclose PHI to the plan sponsor of a group health plan, if applicable, provided that any such plan sponsor certifies that the information provided will be maintained in a confidential manner and not used for employment related decisions or for other employee benefit determinations or in any other manner not permitted by law.
9. Health-Related Benefits and Services. We or our business associates may contact you regarding health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.
10. Mergers and Acquisitions. Your PHI may also be disclosed as a part of a potential sale, merger or acquisition involving our business.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PHI IN CERTAIN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Your PHI may be used or disclosed as applicable without your authorization in the following circumstances:

- for any purpose when required by law;
- for public health and/or law enforcement activities consistent with law if we suspect child abuse, elder abuse, or neglect or believe you to be a victim of abuse, neglect, domestic violence, or other crimes;
- as required by law for governmental oversight agency conducting audits, investigations (such as investigations in to consumer complaints), or civil or criminal proceedings;
- if required by a court or an administrative ordered subpoena or discovery request;
- as required by law for certain law enforcement purposes; about deceased persons to coroners, health examiners, and funeral directors consistent with law;
- if necessary for organ and tissue donation or transplant;
- for certain government-approved research purposes;
- upon reasonable belief to avert a serious threat to health or safety;
- for specialized government functions (such as military personnel and inmates in correctional facilities);
- for national security or intelligence activities;
- to workers' compensation agencies if necessary to make a benefit determination;
- to Non-affiliated organizations or persons, such as other insurance institutions, agents, insurance support organizations (such as Medical Information Bureau, Inc.), or law enforcement and governmental authority as necessary to prevent or investigate criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation or material non-disclosure in connection with your coverage or application for coverage;
- to our parent company and affiliates in conjunction with health care operation purposes.

Your Privacy Rights

Your rights are explained below. Any written requests to exercise those rights should be directed to the address provided at the end of this notice.

1. Restrictions. You have the right to request restrictions on certain of our uses and disclosures of your PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations by notifying us in writing. Your request must describe in detail the restriction you are requesting. We will evaluate all requests; however, we are not required to agree to the restriction and we retain the right to terminate a restriction if we believe such termination is appropriate. In the event of a termination by us, you will be notified. You also have the right to terminate a restriction, in writing. You may obtain a Request for Restriction form by contacting us at the phone number listed at the end of this notice.
2. Confidential Communications. You may request that we send communications of health information to you by alternative means or to alternative locations, if all or part of that information could endanger you. For example, you may ask that we contact you at work, rather than at home. We will try to accommodate reasonable requests. You may obtain a Request for Confidential

Communication form by contacting us at the phone number listed at the end of this notice.

3. Access. You have a right to access much of the PHI that we retain on your behalf. All requests must be made in writing and signed by you or your representative. We may charge a reasonable fee for copies, postage, labor and supplies and, in certain cases, may deny your request. You may obtain a Request for Access form by contacting us at the phone number listed at the end of this notice.
4. Amendment. You have the right to request that PHI we maintain about you be amended or corrected. We will give each request consideration; however we are not obligated to make requested amendments. All amendment requests must be in writing, signed by you or your representative and state the reason(s) for the request. If an amendment or correction is made by us, we may also notify others who work with us and have copies of the uncorrected record if we believe that such notification is necessary. You may obtain a Request for Amendment form by contacting us at the phone number listed at the end of this notice.
5. Accounting. You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures made by us of your PHI within the six (6) calendar years immediately preceding such a request. Requests must be made in writing and signed by you or your representative. The first accounting in any 12-month period is free; but we may charge you for additional accountings within the same 12-month period. You will be notified in advance of any fee. You may obtain a Request for Accounting of Disclosure form by contacting us at the phone number listed at the end of this notice.
6. Revocation of Authorization. If you have signed an authorization for uses and disclosures not related to payment or health care operations, you have the right to revoke that authorization in writing at any time, except to the extent that we have taken action in reliance on such authorization, or if other law provides us with the right to contest a claim under the policy or the policy itself. Note: your revocation will not prevent us from using collected information in conjunction with our fraud prevention program.
7. Paper Copy of this Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy upon request.

NOTE: The rights granted to you do not extend to information about you relating to or in anticipation of a claim or civil or criminal proceeding.
